12 months Membership Application agreement form

In order to join the "British Association of Hypnotherapy NLP" (BAHN) you need to first read and agree to our ethical code of practice as detailed on our web site, your signature to this and other agreements will be required at the end of this application form.

We only allow members that have been trained professionally with hands on training as an NLP or Hypnotherapy practitioners, a list of training companies can be found via our site. Those that have done a home study course will not be allowed to join until they have received further supervised training.

By joining you are allowing the BAHN to keep and make public records of your contact details, qualifications and indemnity insurance documents; this is of utmost importance for acceptance as a member and for the reason of the general public wanting to contact us for this information. You are allowing the BAHN to send or publish your information via our web site or by any other means for PR marketing purposes to generate income for your business. Please send us copies of your qualifications and your insurance documents. Your public liability insurance must cover you for no less than one million pounds and for the duration of your twelve months membership.

All applicants are kindly asked to provide details of the names and addresses for two independent referees who have been your clients. Training companies are asked to provide referees of two students plus two clients. Your referees cannot be your immediate family or the person that trained you. The BAHN reserve the right to contact your referees at any given time. We also reserve the right to personally contact applicants for the purpose of discussing your application prior to possible acceptance.

Newly qualified Practitioners will be tested via a written exam and a supervised session before being accepting as a member, details on this are explained over a phone conversation prior to joining. If you are already a member of another accredited body then this is taken into account as we shall contact them for a reference to your professionalism and competence as a practitioner or trainer.

As a member you are agreeing in joining NLP Hypnotherapy practice groups and to further your development by continuing to obtain qualifications from different training bodies. This gives you a wider range of understanding different approaches to the same problem that a client has come to be treatment for, this is in your best interest and the clients.

As a member you will receive your own new BAHN logo with your name or company name displayed within, an example is shown on the membership page on our web site. You understand and agree that this logo remains the copyrighted property of the BAHN at all times. You are agreeing to display this logo as a printed certified of membership and on letter heads, business cards. You also agree to add your membership logo to your web site and a link to

<http://british-association-hypnotherapy-nlp.co.uk/>

This is in your best interest to show to the public that you are indeed a professional British Institute of Hypnotherapy accredited member. You agree to stop displaying the logo should any such situation arise that you are removed as a member. Membership can be revoked at any given time by the BAHN without a membership refund, however we promise to fully explain the reasons after a full investigation into a possible complaint against you.

Your membership is free if you are a training company and you are agreeing to your courses being tested by the BAHN for their professionalism and information obtained. Therapist will kindly be asked to pay an annual fee of just £45 to cover our cost of marketing to promote your services via the BAHN and for the use of our logo.

We need a small write up from you to place on the BAHN site about your company. Company name, Contact details, phone number, web link and small write up on what courses you do or the type of therapy clients you treat i.e. smokers etc. We may edit what you write to fit on the site.

We look forward to hearing from you and building a professional future together.
